Claire Coleman will take the other share to Mundella. There are collection boxes at each service venue. Thank you so much.

Rainbow Shop - Donations Needed

Are you in spring cleaning mode, turning out cupboards, reducing the contents of your wardrobe or sorting through bookshelves? The Rainbow Shop in Cheriton would be pleased to receive any donations of bric-a-brac, clothes and accessories, or books, cds and dvds (sorry no videos). Items can be collected if necessary, please telephone on 274169 or speak to Jill O'Neill.

Prayer Ministry after 10:45am Service

If anyone would like someone to pray with them, about anything at all, just make your way to the front of the Church to the small seating area near the lectern (on the left).

Posters & Flyers

It is important that our noticeboards are kept up to date and attractive and notices are displayed appropriately. To assist with this please give all posters and flyers for display to Ruth or Corinne. It also means that we can ensure that All Stars and Grace Taylor Hall receive the same information. Thank you.

Do you want to know your Bible even better?

I have recently discovered an excellent new resource that helps us to get to know our Bibles better in a fun way. I want to recommend this internet based resource to you. The website is www.thebibleproject.com.

The site uses short, fully animated videos to make the biblical story accessible to everyone, everywhere. Each video is 5-10 minutes in length and helps us to understand why the book was written and what it has to say to us today. New videos are being added all the time which explore important elements of our faith, such as: 'The Holy Spirit'; 'The Messiah'; and 'The Covenants'.

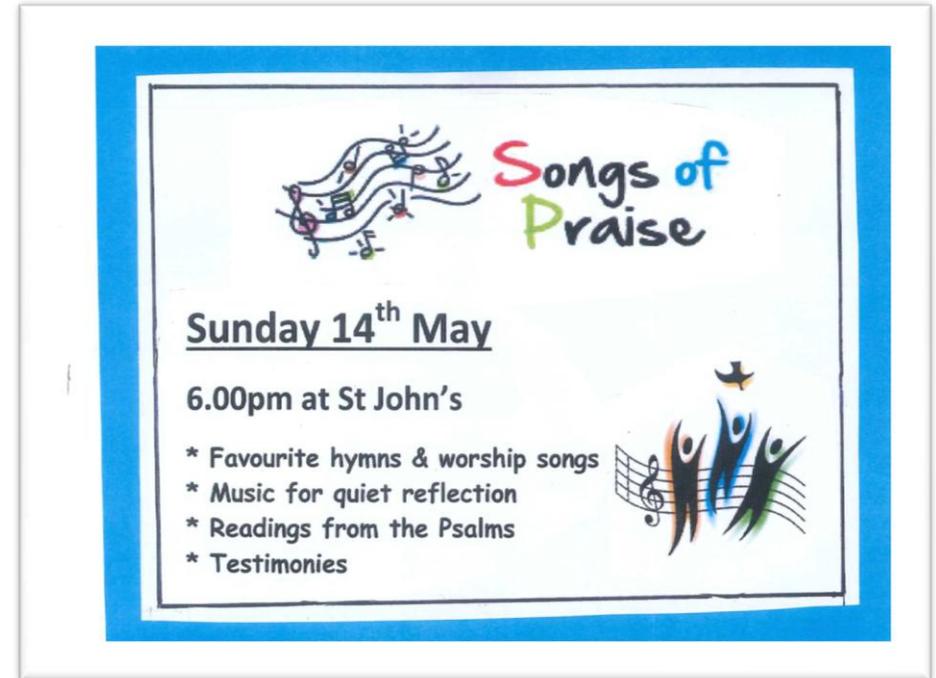

Free posters are also available to download for each book to help us remember the story and the important themes and messages they contain.

I encourage you to take a look at this resource and use it as one of the ways to grow as a disciple of Jesus in 2017.

Every Blessing, Steve

Thy Kingdom Come

During the period between Ascension and Pentecost - Thursday 25th May - Sunday 4th June, we shall be supporting an initiative called Thy Kingdom Come. This was initially started by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York in 2016 and is a global prayer movement inviting Christians around the world to pray between Ascension and Pentecost for more people to come to know Jesus Christ. The week is also known as "Pledge 2 Pray" week.

We will be showing a short video from the Archbishop at various morning services. We shall be using the Worship@6 on Sunday 28 May to focus on praying specifically for "more people to know Jesus". Even if you don't normally come to Worship@6 please come to this one.

All 20 free tickets for the informal service of prayer and worship led by the Archbishop of Canterbury at the Cathedral on Saturday 3 June at 6.30 pm have now gone. The website details say: "We want to pray for people to come to know Jesus and for Christians to be empowered by the Holy Spirit to share their faith." The event is now booked out, so is clearly very popular.

We will start the week with a Communion service on Ascension Day, Thursday 25 May at 7pm. Let's come together to encourage one another to pray for the Kingdom.
