

Get Connected

Sunday 15th April 2018

Welcome to St John's Folkestone.

If you are new we hope you enjoy the service. Do collect a welcome pack which contains information about all that goes on at St John's and fill in a welcome card. At the 10:45am service you can go to the Welcome Desk near the door.

Please also introduce yourself to a member of the team as you leave the church.

This Evening at 6:00pm

Worship@6 in the hall (6-7pm)

Activities this week

Please see our website under 'Join in' for details of regular weekly activities and the monthly calendar.

Annual Parochial Church Meeting Monday 23rd April at 7:30pm

Our APCM takes place on Monday 23rd April at 7:30pm in the church hall. Refreshments will be available from 7pm. This is an important meeting in the life of our church.

We would love you to join us as we review 2017, and look forward as a church to an exciting 2018. We will be electing our Church Wardens – Nick and Steve have both offered to stand for a further year.

We will also be electing several new members to the PCC. If you are interested in being a PCC member please speak to me before Sunday 22nd April.

Every blessing, Steve

The APCM is for all members of St John's church who are on the electoral roll. In addition to the Vision presentation there will be: an election of new PCC members; a presentation on our financial position; reports on the life of our church; and a chance to ask questions of the leadership.

We hope to see as many of you as are able to come but please make sure you are on the Electoral Roll. The 'Electoral Roll' of an Anglican Church is basically its membership list. The Electoral Roll is the basis of our church directory, which helps internal communication and allows us, wherever possible, to contact people via email, thus saving us postage costs.

Worship@6 tonight: "I don't do God". Alastair Campbell, Tony Blair's former Press Secretary, was famously the man who used the phrase "we don't do God". Tonight we are showing part of a video of him interviewing the present Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby. Come and watch with us, and join us in praise and prayer to the God who by contrast "does do Alastair Campbell"

Easter Flowers

Thank you to all who gave so generously towards the cost of the Easter flowers. Jill O'Neill.

This month's BURN 24/7 will be held on Friday 20th April 8pm – midnight at St. John's Church. BURN 24/7

Folkestone is an evening of continuous worship. Our vision is to create space and time to worship God, bask in His presence and receive from Him.

Thank You from Tilly to all her friends for Cards, presents and your prayers for her 80th birthday.

Trip to Margate

After such a great weekend away together at Ashburnham, the social team are planning a day trip to Margate on Saturday 28th April. It's for young and old alike, families, those on their own, everyone is welcome to come along and enjoy the beach or the Turner Contemporary...or Dreamland for the more adventurous! The choice is yours. We'll get you there and back and you can choose your preferred activity whilst there. We have a coach booked at 10.30am from Cornwallis Avenue [outside Vicarage], leaving Margate at 3:00pm. Coach cost: adults £10, children £5, under 5s travel free, but please speak to one of us if you'd like to come but funds are a barrier. Mary Harding & Claire Coleman
